United Nations E/2017/9/Add.10

Economic and Social Council

Distr.: General
19 July 2017

Original: English

2017 session
28 July 2016-27 July 2017
Agenda item 4
Elections, nominations, confirmations and appointments

Appointment of 24 members to the Committee of Experts on Public Administration

Note by the Secretary-General

1. On 28 June 2017, the Secretary-General was informed that Nathalie Loiseau (France) had taken up an assignment as Minister for European Affairs of France and that the exigencies of her new functions would not permit her to continue standing for appointment to the Committee of Experts on Public Administration for the period 2018-2021 as proposed in document E/2017/9/Add.9.

2. The Secretary-General has nominated Emmanuelle d'Achon (France) for consideration by the Economic and Social Council to replace the nomination of Ms. Loiseau. Biographical information on Ms. D'Achon is contained below.

Emmanuelle d'Achon (France)

Emmanuelle d'Achon is Inspector General at the General Auditing Service of the Ministry of Economy, Finance and Public Accounts of France, the department responsible for auditing public or private entities managing public funds and counselling the Government in evaluating the efficiency of public policies. She is also a member of the Board of the Alternative Energies and Atomic Energy Commission of France. In 2013 and 2014, she was Assistant Secretary-General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Development, supervising governance and administration as well as international negotiations on cybersecurity issues and formal consultations with African countries. She served as Ambassador to Ireland from 2010 to 2013 and to the United Republic of Tanzania from 2004 to 2007, where she prepared the signature of a bilateral framework agreement on development cooperation. She was Counsellor at the Permanent Mission of France to the United Nations from 2001 to 2004, in charge of Security Council matters. Ms. D'Achon was involved in personnel administration for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Development from 1996 to 2001 and was appointed Director of Human Resources, Deputy Director of Administration, responsible for the management of 16,000 public servants and local personnel from 2007 to 2009. Ms. D'Achon worked as a Congressional fellow in the United States Congress in

17-12265 (E) 250717

Please recycle

1989 and 1990 and also served in Washington, D.C., Mauritius and South Africa. She holds a Bachelor's degree in French literature from the University of Caen and graduated in international relations from the Political Science Institute of Paris. She is a former student of the National School of Administration in France.

17-12269